Why Trust Us?

- We have a 23 year track record in international recruitment.
- We have an unblemished record of integrity, honesty and innovation.
- We are the leader in DIRECT HIRE international healthcare recruitment.
- We are now recruiting for Nurse Aide positions.

No NCLEX? No Problem!

- Without NCLEX, international nurses are not able to apply for U.S. permanent residency as a Registered Nurse.
- International nurses can, however, apply for U.S. permanent residency as a Nurse Aide.
- Nurse Aides who apply for permanent residency can include their spouse and dependent children in their applications.

Your Career Path

- You will begin working in the U.S. as a Nurse Aide.
- If you completed a RN education program in your home country, you can pursue a U.S. RN licensure while you are working as a Nurse Aide.
- Upon attainment of RN licensure, you can fulfill your return of service commitment to your employer working as a RN.

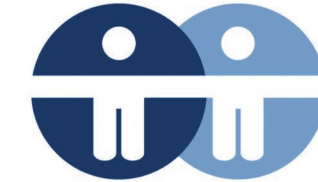

Qualifications

- You must have completed a formal nursing education program.
- You must have minimum 1 year current bedside experience.
- You must have strong English speaking and writing skills.

Who Will Be My Employer?

How Much Will I Be Paid?

- Hourly rates of pay vary by geographic regions based on local cost of living.
- On average, hourly rates of pay will be in the range of $15.00/hour
- You receive exactly the same pay and benefits as all similarly qualified applicants working in the same position at your location.

What Other Benefits Will I Receive?

- Employer pays for attorney and filing fees for permanent resident application.
- Employer pays for your National Visa Center Fee Bill.
- Employer reimburses you for Embassy Medical Exam.
- Employer pays for your one-way airfare to U.S.
- Employer provides 30 days of temporary housing on arrival in U.S.
- Employer pays for your Nurse Aide training and certification.

How Much Do I Need To Pay?

- Zero recruitment or placement fees.
- No cost for attorney fees to include spouse and children.
- You will need to pay NVC bill for accompanying family members.
- You will need to pay the medical exams for accompanying family members.
- You will need to pay for accompanying family members airfare to the U.S.
- NO SALARY REDUCTION OR DEDUCTION EVER.

Your Commitment

In return for CommuniCare offering you a full time, DIRECT HIRE position and paying for your immigration application and more, you will be required to agree to work with CommuniCare for at least three (3) years.

Failure to complete the 3 year return of service commitment will result in the applicant having to repay a portion of the fees the employer had expended in the immigration and relocation processes.
